WHO'S GUILTY?

A NEW IDEA IN PHOTO-DRAMAS

With beating pulse and bated breath they sit and look to-day—the thousands of moving picture devotees who have waited for these absorbing photo-dramas.

They see hope, despair, love, hate and fear; honor and ambition and life itself weighed in the gripping series

WHO'S GUILTY?

The theme is new and striking. It asks—"WHO is most to blame when honor is lost? When love is crushed? When ideals are shattered? When life itself falls crashing into the abyss of destruction?"

It puts the question to you—WHO'S GUILTY?

MRS. WILSON WOODROW, the author of the stories, with consummate skill has made herself a powerful analyst of the heart. She has used life as it is for her materials. The life of men! The life of women! YOUR life as it might have been! YOUR life as it may be!

ANNA NILSSON, the appealing emotional actress, and TOM MOORE play the leading roles in all the fourteen photo-dramas. The most fetching costumes in the newest modes magnify the effect and superb acting of Miss Nilsson. HICKSON, the Fifth Avenue costumer, designed the gowns MISS NILSSON wears, exclusively for the WHO'S GUILTY? series.
